

secondary education I studied at the Law faculty of the university, graduating in 1931 with the title of "Doctor iuris." An authentic copy of the diploma is enclosed.

Since 1933 I was living in Palestine, and employed as a clerk. I may add that I have a good knowledge of the English, Hebrew, and German language.

Hoping that this application may be dealt with in a favourable manner, I beg to remain, Sir,

your most obedient servant Yrs. F. Liberty.

In the Field, 1.9.1942.

1 enclosure.